LAW360 QUOTES INSURANCE TEAM IN, "FLORIDA INSURANCE CRISIS NEEDS LITIGATION REFORM, EXPERTS SAY"

May 10, 2022

Law360

View Full Article

Florida lawmakers are gathering for a special session later this month to tackle a tangle of property insurance issues in a market that has spiraled out of control, sending homeowners' premiums sky-high and pushing several insurance companies to stop underwriting or into insolvency.

The changes "only added fuel to the fire" to Florida's current property insurance market, said Chris Choquette, an attorney on the insurance team for the West Palm Beach, Florida, office at Berger Singerman.

Related Practices

Insurance

Related Practice Teams

Dispute Resolution

Related Team Member(s)

Christopher B. Choquette

Topics

Florida Insurance Litigation