BANKRUPTCY LITIGATION

Berger Singerman enjoys a substantial practice and fine regional and national reputation in engagements for complex litigation in a bankruptcy context. This practice draws from the depth and expertise of our Business Reorganization and Dispute Resolution Teams in prosecuting or defending complex contested matters and Adversary Proceedings in bankruptcy and various other frameworks for dispute resolution in a bankruptcy or insolvency context. Our successes in these cases has served as the platform for our engagement as special litigation counsel in many bankruptcy and insolvency related legal proceedings throughout the country.
