

NIKKI BRANCH

Associate

954-712-5163

nbranch@bergersingerman.com

201 East Las Olas Boulevard

Suite 1500

Fort Lauderdale, FL 33301

Nikki Branch is an associate based in Berger Singerman's Fort Lauderdale office and a member of its Dispute Resolution team. Nikki focuses her practice on a wide range of civil litigation matters.

Nikki earned her law degree from Florida State University College of Law, where she graduated ninth in her class and was inducted into the Florida State University Chapter of The Order of the Coif, a national legal honor society. In addition to serving as the President for Florida State's nationally-ranked Trial Team, Nikki served as a Staff Editor for Florida State University Law Review. She also interned at the Florida Supreme Court, where she worked closely under the guidance of Justice Alan Lawson. Her bar exam response on Florida and Federal Constitutional Law was selected to be published by the Florida Board of Bar Examiners in their 2022 Florida Bar Examination Study Guide and Selected Answers to assist students preparing for the Florida bar exam.

Education

J.D., magna cum laude, Florida State University College of Law

- Order of the Coif

B.S., summa cum laude, Florida State University

Bar Admissions

Florida

U.S. District Courts, Southern and Middle Districts of Florida

Practice Teams

Dispute Resolution

Practice Areas

Complex Commercial Litigation
Labor & Employment

Doing Business in Florida Blog

Client Alert: Florida's New Immigration Law and Implications for Private Employers
June 14, 2023

Client Alert: Federal Trade Commission Proposes New Rule for Nationwide Ban on Noncompete Clauses in Labor Contracts
January 9, 2023