Insurance attorney Higer was hesitant to recommend every homeowner get flood insurance.

“That’s kind of like saying, ‘Do you want some fancy doohickey that you may or may not be able to take advantage of and an expense that you want to incur?’ It probably provides you a nominal benefit,” he said.

Even if someone does have flood insurance and needs to use it, Higer said the insurance might offer “some benefit, but it comes at a reasonably significant expense.”
