Hunter J. Grasso is an associate on the firm's Business Reorganization Team. Hunter concentrates his practice on commercial bankruptcy and restructuring matters and related litigation. Hunter represents debtors, creditors, creditors' committees, trustees, and other fiduciaries in complex bankruptcy proceedings. Hunter also advises on out-of-court restructurings, assists fiduciaries with substantial asset recoveries, and investigates and prosecutes director and officer liability claims.

Hunter has a growing interest in crypto, digital assets, and blockchain technology, and frequently writes about emerging issues at the intersection of crypto and bankruptcy law.
