

CURRENT OPPORTUNITIES

We are always interested in adding talented attorneys and talented groups of attorneys who thrive while working in a close-knit, collaborative, and dynamic team environment, who are willing to work hard while having fun, and who consistently strive to deliver passionate client service and work product of the highest quality. Our firm has a stellar track record of attracting and retaining culturally compatible team members and helping them to grow professionally and is committed to legal innovation and continuous improvement to facilitate professional development, entrepreneurship, and competitiveness.

Litigation Associate

We are seeking a talented, hard-working, and motivated litigation associate with three to six years' experience. Applicants must have strong academic credentials and relevant prior work experience.

Securities attorney

We are seeking to expand our Corporate, M&A, and Securities and Capital Markets groups with the addition of a highly qualified and motivated attorney with at least eight years' working experience in private securities offerings, fund work, and joint ventures, including in connection with so called "506b" offerings. We seek a candidate who has strong academic credentials and prior work experience, and who has served as lead counsel on private placement offerings, private funds, and sophisticated joint ventures. Applicants must demonstrate a record of good judgment, as well as strong organizational and time management skills.

Tallahassee and Orlando partners

We are looking for highly qualified and motivated partner level attorneys for our core practice areas including Bankruptcy, Commercial Litigation, Corporate M&A, Real Estate, Estate Planning and Wealth Preservation, Probate, Construction, Healthcare, and Land Use/Zoning.

Environmental partner

We are looking for a highly qualified and motivated partner level attorney with at least six years' working experience in the areas of environmental transactional, regulatory compliance, and permitting matters, including transactional support and due diligence, environmental assessment and liability matters, wetlands and coastal permitting, complex land use projects, air quality matters, hazardous materials contamination, and other compliance and enforcement cases.

Healthcare partner

We are looking for a highly qualified and motivated partner level attorney with experience in healthcare/life sciences issues. Experience working with Medicare, CMS, government enforcement agencies or with payers or managed care is also a plus. Core requirements include strong health care regulatory and transactional experience, compliance with health-related state and federal laws and regulations, private and public third-party reimbursement, corporate practice of medicine, health care operational issues, integrated delivery systems, and purchases/sales and mergers of health care businesses as well as joint ventures. Past work should encompass a wide range of healthcare entities, such as physician group practices, large group providers, health care systems, skilled nursing and long-term care facilities, clinical laboratories, home health agencies, medical device manufacturers, durable medical equipment suppliers, practice management companies, management service organizations (MSOs) and substance abuse treatment centers.

Labor and Employment Law partner

We are looking for a highly qualified and motivated partner level attorney with experience handling complex Labor and Employment matters. The ideal candidate will have expertise in both advisory and litigation aspects of labor and employment law, with a focus on providing strategic counsel to clients across a variety of industries.

Lending lawyer

We are seeking a lawyer with significant experience in commercial lending and secured transactions who is capable of taking a first chair role in corporate, commercial and asset-based financing matters. Experience in M&A and corporate transactions would be helpful. A commitment to a team approach to the handling of client service matters and collaboration with team members within our firm and with counterparties is essential. Admission to The Florida Bar or a willingness to becoming admitted is required.

Bankruptcy partner

We are seeking to expand our Business Reorganization Team with the addition of a first chair level partner with portable business. Significant experience in Chapter 11 cases representing debtors, committees and fiduciaries required, and bankruptcy litigation experience is preferred. A team attitude and a collaborative approach to dealing with colleagues at our firm and with our counterparties is essential. We are looking for enthusiastic candidates who thrive while working in a closely knit collaborative team environment, work well under pressure and are willing to work hard while having fun and who consistently strive to deliver exceptional client service and work product of the highest quality. Member of The Florida Bar or a commitment to be admitted is required.
