BERGER SINGERMAN
FLORIDA'S BUSINESS LAW FIRM

MODERN RESTAURANT MANAGEMENT, "COVID-19 LESSONS LEARNED FOR RESTAURANT TENANTS"

May 19, 2020

By: Iryna Ivashchuk

Modern Restaurant Management

View Full Article

Stay-at-home orders and closures of non-essential businesses as a result of the COVID-19 pandemic have had significant economic implications for restaurant tenants. Going forward, while negotiating new leases, restaurant tenants should consider adding specific provisions that may potentially lessen the effect of governmental closure orders, pandemics and similar events on their operations.

Related Practices

Real Estate

Related Practice Teams

Business, Finance & Tax

Related Team Member(s)

Iryna Ivashchuk