BERGER SINGERMAN
FLORIDA'S BUSINESS LAW FIRM

DAILY BUSINESS REVIEW, "COMMERCIAL RELATIONSHIPS WILL BE TESTED BY COVID-19"

March 25, 2020

By: Alejandro Miyar

Daily Business Review

View Full Article

The impact of the coronavirus includes a major wave of significant commercial disputes. We are experiencing a worldwide health and business crisis where the world's economy, including general industry and business relationships at all levels, are being severely roiled by COVID-19. Contractual liability principles and our court system will be tested by coronavirus well into its aftermath.

Related Practices

Complex Commercial Litigation

Related Practice Teams

Dispute Resolution

Related Team Member(s)

Alejandro Miyar

Topics

COVID-19

Coronavirus