BERGER SINGERMAN
FLORIDA'S BUSINESS LAW FIRM

INSURANCE JOURNAL: A CHANGING LANDSCAPE: HURRICANE PREPAREDNESS IN 2021

July 6, 2021

By: Christopher B. Choquette

Insurance Journal

View Full Article

“State insurance regulators recently authorized early cancellation and nonrenewal of policies of three Florida-based insurers as the insurance industries continues to struggle due to rising claims costs. With other insurers looking to shed risky policies as well, more customers are likely to face the chopping block in the coming months, especially with the NOAA’s recent prediction of another above-average hurricane season.”

Related Practices

Insurance

Related Practice Teams

Dispute Resolution

Related Team Member(s)

Christopher B. Choquette

Topics

Insurance

Hurricane Preparedness Week