Her arrival further strengthens the firm's capabilities in Central Florida, where she joins a team that includes Tampa-based partner Edward Peterson and Orlando-based partners Nicolette Corso Vilmos and Marc Levine.

"Amy is a powerhouse in the bankruptcy world and an extraordinary addition to our team," said Paul Steven Singerman, co-chair of Berger Singerman. Her experience spans numerous industries, including real estate, healthcare, food and beverage, hospitality, construction, and manufacturing. Appointed as a Subchapter V Trustee by the Office of the United States Trustee in February 2020, she has overseen more than 140 cases, more than any other Subchapter V trustee in the country.
