MITCH GOLDBERG & BRYAN APPEL, PANELISTS, "YEAR-END TAX PLANNING AFTER THE 2020 ELECTION," HOSTED BY BERGER SINGERMAN AND MARCUM LLP

November 11, 2020

While lawsuits around the election are underway, enough votes have finalized by the Electoral College to call Joseph Biden the President-elect.

With this development, pressing questions emerge around year-end tax planning for businesses and individuals.

Register to join us for a well-rounded discussion with tax professionals from Marcum LLP and Berger Singerman this Thursday!

- How significant an impact will the Biden platform have if implemented in the coming year?
- What actions, if any, should you consider taking before the end of this year?
- Are retroactive changes to tax law a real consideration?
- How will the elections results change considerations around M&A activity as the year comes to a close?
