Berger Singerman, Florida's Business Law Firm, is proud to announce that partner Samuel J. Capuano has been named to the American Bankruptcy Institute's (ABI) 2025 "40 Under 40" list, recognizing top emerging leaders in the insolvency and restructuring profession.

This prestigious national award honors 40 professionals under the age of 40 who demonstrate exceptional professional achievement and leadership in the bankruptcy and restructuring field. Honorees will be recognized at a special ceremony during ABI's 2025 Winter Leadership Conference.

Sam focuses his practice on insolvency and litigation matters in bankruptcy cases, assignments for the benefit of creditors, receiverships, post-judgment proceedings, and out-of-court workouts. He represents a wide range of clients, including debtors, creditors, trustees, assignees, receivers, landlords, tenants, asset purchasers, officers, directors, and equity holders. Known for his collaborative approach, Sam is driven to find creative, efficient, and practical solutions that align with each client's goals.

Now in its ninth year, ABI's "40 Under 40" program highlights rising stars shaping the future of the insolvency field through innovation, leadership, and community engagement.
