BERGER SINGERMAN
FLORIDA'S BUSINESS LAW FIRM

SCOTT “SJ” R. JABLONSKI COMPLETES CORNELL UNIVERSITY’S CHANGE MANAGEMENT CERTIFICATE PROGRAM

June 16, 2022

Berger Singerman, Florida’s business law firm, is proud to announce that Scott “SJ” R. Jablonski, the firm's Transactional Innovation Partner and Corporate Practice Manager, has completed Cornell University’s Change Management certificate program.

The Change Management certificate program, developed by faculty at Cornell University, equips professionals to anticipate where things are moving, how to implement changes needed, and sustain the momentum of change management initiatives to advance their agenda. The four core courses and two leadership electives enable professionals to meet their specific development goals while customizing the program to suit particular professional outcomes.

Related Team Member(s)

Scott R. Jablonski

Topics

Legal Innovation & Technology

Process improvement

Project management

Continuous improvement