Amy Denton Mayer is a partner on the firm's Business Reorganization Team in the Tampa office. She has more than two decades of experience representing debtors, creditors, committees, trustees, assignees, purchasers, and other stakeholders in complex bankruptcy cases under Chapters 7, 11, 12, and 13, as well as in assignments for the benefit of creditors and out-of-court workouts.

Amy also serves as a Subchapter V Trustee in the Middle District of Florida and has been appointed in over 158 cases—more than any other trustee in the country. She frequently acts as a court-appointed examiner and post-confirmation fiduciary, and regularly appears in contested matters and bankruptcy appeals. Her industry experience spans real estate, healthcare, construction, hospitality, agriculture, and consumer products.

Board Certified in Business Bankruptcy Law and a Certified Public Accountant, Amy is a Fellow of the American Bar Foundation, a Senior Fellow of the Trial Law Institute, and a member of the Litigation Counsel of America. She is a frequent speaker and author on bankruptcy topics and was recognized by the American Bankruptcy Institute as a "40 Under 40" honoree and by IWIRC Florida as a Trailblazer.
