BERGER SINGERMAN EXPANDS ITS AWARD-WINNING INSURANCE TEAM WITH ADDITION OF VERONICA N. DANIEL

February 16, 2026

Berger Singerman, Florida's business law firm, is pleased to announce that Veronica N. Daniel has joined the firm as an associate in its Fort Lauderdale office. She will focus her practice within the firm's Insurance Team.

Ms. Daniel represents clients in matters involving first- and third-party liability, property insurance coverage disputes, bad faith litigation, and complex commercial litigation in both state and federal courts. She brings significant experience handling insurance defense matters from inception through trial and appeal, including coverage opinions, dispositive motions, depositions of fact and expert witnesses, mediations, and appellate briefing.

Prior to joining Berger Singerman, Veronica practiced at a prominent national law firm and served as in-house counsel to a Florida-based insurance carrier, where she managed complex insurance defense matters from inception through appeal. Earlier in her career, she handled high-volume first-party property and PIP litigation across Florida courts.

"Veronica's depth of experience in first-party property and insurance litigation further strengthens our Insurance Team," said Jordi Guso, Managing Partner of Berger Singerman. "Her courtroom experience, strategic mindset, and commitment to client service make her a strong addition to the firm as a whole."

Michael J. Higer, head of the firm's Insurance Practice, added: "Veronica brings a practical understanding of both carrier-side litigation and complex coverage disputes. Her ability to manage cases efficiently from inception through appeal, combined with her experience working in-house, will be an asset to our clients. We are excited to have her join our team."

Veronica earned her Juris Doctor from the University of Florida Levin College of Law in 2016, where she served as General Editor of the Florida Journal of International Law and held leadership positions including President of the Art Law Society and Vice President of the International Law Society. She received her Bachelor of Science in Journalism, cum laude, from the University of Florida in 2012. She is admitted to practice in Florida and before the U.S. District Courts for the Southern, Middle, and Northern Districts of Florida, as well as the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Eleventh Circuit

Veronica is fluent in French and is an active member of the Florida Association of Women Lawyers, Broward Chapter.
