BERGER SINGERMAN STRENGTHENS INTERNATIONAL TAX PRACTICE WITH ADDITION OF DANIEL BADOVINAC

February 10, 2025

Berger Singerman, Florida's business law firm, is pleased to announce that Daniel A. Badovinac has joined the firm as Partner on the firm's Business, Finance & Tax Team. He will be resident in the firm's Miami office.

Daniel A. Badovinac is a seasoned international tax attorney specializing in advising high-net-worth individuals, family offices, and multinational entities on complex cross-border tax planning strategies. With extensive expertise in income, estate, gift, and generation-skipping tax matters, he provides sophisticated counsel on structuring offshore trusts, corporate vehicles, and investment strategies for non-resident clients. Daniel has played a pivotal role in international restructurings, treaty planning, and corporate and partnership tax matters, offering bespoke solutions that optimize tax efficiency while ensuring compliance with evolving global regulations. His strategic insights and deep understanding of international tax law make him a trusted advisor to affluent clients navigating the complexities of multi-jurisdictional wealth preservation and succession planning.

"Daniel's comprehensive knowledge in international tax planning and cross-border investment structures will be an invaluable asset to our clients and our firm," said Jordi Guso, managing partner of Berger Singerman. "His deep understanding and thoughtful approach align perfectly with our commitment to delivering exceptional service."

Daniel joins Berger Singerman from Carlton Fields, where he provided tax counsel to clients on inbound and outbound planning matters. He previously worked at Bilzin Sumberg and founded DB Legal, where he advised domestic and international clients on corporate, tax, and banking matters. Earlier in his career, Daniel held prominent roles at Fabara & Compañía Abogados in Ecuador and in the Attorney General's Office of Ecuador.

Daniel holds a Juris Doctor and Master of Laws (LL.M.) in Taxation with an International Taxation Certificate from the University of Miami School of Law, an LL.M. in International Law from the University of Houston Law Center, and a law degree from Universidad Espíritu Santo in Ecuador. He is licensed in Florida and Ecuador, providing him with a unique ability to bridge legal systems in both countries.
