Berger Singerman, Florida's business law firm, is pleased to announce that Managing Partner Jordi Guso has been recognized by Florida Trend Legal Elite as a 2026 Notable Managing Partner.

The annual Florida Trend Legal Elite Notable Managing Partners recognition honors law firm leaders across Florida who have demonstrated outstanding leadership within their firms, made meaningful contributions to the legal profession, and are committed to mentoring, community service, and fostering positive workplace cultures.

As Managing Partner of Berger Singerman, Jordi oversees the firm's strategic direction while maintaining an active practice representing clients in complex commercial bankruptcy, restructuring, and litigation matters. His recognition reflects his leadership of the firm and his longstanding commitment to serving clients, the legal profession, and the South Florida community.
